

John Harrington, P.G., CFM
Director, Water Resources Division
Association of Central Oklahoma Governments

John Harrington currently serves as the Director of the Water Resources Division at the Association of Central Oklahoma Governments (ACOG). Mr. Harrington has more than 30 years experience as a hydrogeologist and geophysicist, with 25 years working in Central Oklahoma. A registered professional geologist, John received his Bachelor of Science degree in geology at the University of California, Davis, and his Master of Science degree in geology at San Diego State University.

John is also a certified floodplain manager. His professional interests include mathematical modeling of all sorts, including groundwater modeling and surface watershed models. He currently serves on the board of the Oklahoma Blue Thumb Association, a conservation group dedicated to preserving surface water quality. He is also serves as an adjunct professor at OSU OKC teaching physical and geologic sciences. He is also an avid amateur photographer and likes to take pictures of water.